

“The glory of God is man fully alive.” - St. Irenaeus

Every man longs for freedom, for life, for love...for adventure! We want to make sure that our lives count for something, for someone. When we watch epic movies, something stirs in us. We want to be the hero. We want to be the guy rescuing the beauty. Those stirrings deep in our hearts may be giving us a clue that there's more to us than what we've been told. The truth is men are created in the image of God who is a warrior, who never gives up pursuing and seeking to rescue His bride. Men are designed by God to be dangerous...dangerous for good, and we are invited to join Christ in His mission to “bind up the brokenhearted and set the captive free.”

To discover what's true about himself, a man needs time away to take his question to his True Father, his Creator, to hear it straight from Him. Then a man need some guys who will fight with him and for him, who will believe what's true about him even when he can't believe it for himself. A man needs other men who won't settle for life as usual, but will walk with him out of his addictions, old patterns and mindsets, towards complete freedom, and into the larger story that God has prepared for him. A man needs a band of brothers.
